

Home Alone

The Home Alone course is designed for the 10 to 14 year old group by the Canadian Safety Council, to help prepare them to deal with unforeseen emergencies and staying safe in times where they may find themselves alone for short periods of time.

Key concepts taught in this course include: how to deal with phone calls and visitors, recognizing hazards and following home safety procedures. They will also learn first aid basics, fire safety, and how and when to use 911.

St. John Ambulance has been Canada's leader in first aid training since 1883. We have built a reputation on innovative programming and quality instruction. Our instructors complete our comprehensive Instructor Development Program; ensuring they are familiar with our course material and the latest learning principles.

Our courses contain the latest first aid guidelines based on international lifesaving research and is supported by quality learning material to create confident, well trained students.

When you train with St. John Ambulance, you are giving back to your local community through our Community Service Volunteer Programs.

To register for a Home Alone course, please call your local training centre.
