

Mortlach School News!

The newsletter will be returning in October. Our future newsletters will be sent via email. Until then, here are some upcoming events in our school community:

- ♦ Monday, Sept. 17th: This is our first early dismissal of the year: 2:29 pm
- ♦ Friday, Sept. 21st: The Community Fall Fair will be held at the school. Please see the information that is included. The Fall Fair Booklet is also available on the school website as are the registration forms.
- ♦ Thursday, Sept. 27th: The Terry Fox Run. There will be a gathering in the foyer at 2 p.m. to remember those whose lives have been affected by Cancer and the run /walk will take place from the school, to the golf course and back. The grade's 1,2 will walk around the village
- ♦ Thursday, Sept. 27th: We are also celebrating Wear Orange T-shirt this day.
- ♦ Friday, September 28th: This is our first Friday off on the new alternate school year calendar.

Check out the school website for information on the new class times, bell schedules and events.

Note to parents who will be driving students to sporting events/ practices. Please be sure to submit the Application for Automobile Driver Authorization. This form must be done each school year. They are available at the office.

- ♦ The canteen will be available starting Monday, September 10th. Items available and prices are listed on the school website.
- ♦ School Cash will soon be available for canteen cards and hot lunches! Please see the website for instructions on how to access it. Credit cards can now be used to make your payments.
