4:30pm: Beverage stations are open. CES staff member stands nearby to help regulate juice intake.

5:00pm: Welcome, general thank-yous, short presentation about our fundraising project – Cheryl Crocker

5:05pm: Prayer for supper – we need a volunteer here (Paul Magnus did this last year).

?? Carl Hinderager, Steve Robitaille, ?? Rod Applebee (and then buy him and wife tickets)

5:07pm: Tables are randomly chosen for eating (drawn from a hat) – volunteer needed.

Teachers will go first.

CES Staff will take over by handing out programs at 6:20pm, program starts at 6:45pm.

Teachers start gathering kids at 6:30pm to get them into their pews and ready to perform.

Program begins at 6:45pm and will last approximately 1 hour.

2. Before the Event:

In advance:

CES makes programs that will be handed out at the door.

Create a playlist of Christmas music and a rotating slide show of landscape development – Cheryl Crocker

Contact the caterers for details on arrival time, help needed for set-up, etc. – Rachelle Beck?

Decorating and setting up tables. In order to accommodate more people this year (up to 360 guests), we are going to run banquet-style tables. Could we plan to do this on Tuesday, Dec. 12th in the evening? – All SCC

BCA SLC continues to work on décor for a photo booth, but the SCC will need to set this up in Edwards.

Day of event:

CES makes juice, coffee, and tea

SCC arrives at 4:15pm (?) for last-minute work.

3. After the Event:

Clean-up: Please send your children home and plan to stay for clean-up.

4. Voting Items:

-Paying for three meals for three BCA students to help caterers/SCC

-Paying for tablecloths and any decorations we purchase or rent

 Natalie makes a motion that we cover whatever it costs for tablecloths & decorations. (aiming for up to 250$). Cheryl seconds the motion. Everyone (7) is in favor.

Rachelle motions that we pay for beverages. Bethany seconds the motion. All seven are in favor.

Cheryl motions that we provide three meals for three BCA students to help caterers/SCC before during and after the program. Jeanine will second the motion. All seven are in favor.
